

Social Support Worksheet

As a gatekeeper, you can help refugees at risk for suicide by connecting them to social supports. Use the chart below to brainstorm the various social supports available to the resettled refugees you work with. By filling out this worksheet, you will discover a team of people who care about refugees and can help them through difficult times.

